Join the Union Difference at Quincy's
Dogwood Parade
May 1
"Mayday Traditions"

Come march with Union Difference on Saturday, May 1, in Quincy's annual "Dogwood Parade." The Parade lines up at 24th & Maine and marches west at 9:30 a.m. to 6th & Maine. A Union Difference picnic will follow at Madison Park, 24th & Maine (where the Parade starts). There will be food for your family, children's activities and music. All workers are invited to march with the Union Difference group, whether a union member or not. Bring your bright green Union Difference t-shirt -- if you don't have one, they will be distributed at the Parade.

May 1 is a famous date in Labor History. On this day in 1886, American workers held the first national protest for the eight-hour workday. Workers around the globe celebrate on May 1, in honor of U.S. workers' fight for an eight-hour day. "Mayday Traditions" is this year's Dogwood theme -- workers certainly have a strong Mayday heritage to honor and remember. See you then! (overflow parking at St. Peter's Church.)

Bucky Halker - internationally renowned musician and labor music scholar Bucky Halker will perform in a free concert, Thursday, May 6, 7 p.m., at the Machinist Hall, 2929 N. Fifth in Quincy. Bucky is a talented performer who shares songs about workers and their lives. This is a free concert and a great outing for the family. (This programs are made possible in part by a grant from the Illinois Humanities Council, funded by the Illinois General Assembly,)
